GOOD ROADS - - - MORE BRIDGES

Mr. Geo. W. Robertson, who is public spirited, wants it distinctly understood that he is not only for better roads, but he wants every stream in the county that becomes past-fording bridged. He is more than willing to be taxed for this purpose, and is anxious for the Fiscal Court to make a levy for said improvements.

Mr. Z. M. Staples, a taxpayer of Adair, says: "I am in favor of public improvement, and our county roads in many localities are in a wretched condition. If the Fiscal Court would buy crushers and put metal on the roads travel would soon be made easy. I am not opposed to bridges, but I think at this time the Court should turn its attention to the public highways."

N. M. Tutt, who is very much interested in the progress of Adair County, says: "I am strictly in favor of buying rock crushers, and for any other improvement that will enhance the forms of this county. The fact is, the grader which has been used upon our highways, is but little service, simply because metal is not placed upon the grades. I am perfectly willing to pay an additional tax for better roads and more bridges. Adair county is prospering, and while fortune is smiling upon her, every good citizen should bend his energy, open his purse, to place her upon the top round of the ladder."

The Adair County News; I enclose my dollar, which pays my subscription up to next August. I have been a citizen of Adair county for 85 years, and while I have never been in the habit of blowing, I will now give one puff. I see a great deal of blowing in your paper over good roads, and I want this puff to blow some good roads on Casey Creek. I am not for graders nor rock crushers, but I am for good roads. Casey Creek is full of gravel. I have lived in the mud all the days of my life and scarcely have a road that is fit to go to mill church, or to the county-seat, nor never have had. Come on with your good roads, and put the taxes to the extent of the law, and I will pay mine without a murmur.

Yours respectfully,
WM. HENDRICKSON,
Casey Creek, Ky.

Mr. G. T. Flowers, Sr., of Gradyville, was in town Friday, and was asked by a News man what his position on the road and bridge was, he stated: "Put me down for both." I am heartily in favor of the county buying a rock crusher and putting it and the grader to work. The time has come when we must make better roads, and both grade and stone are necessary. I am also in favor of bridges. We need one over Pettitsfork between Gradyville and Columbia. The county could build a bridge each year, and also make a few miles of road, and keep within the limit allowed for such measures and I believe the people of this county would heartily endorse such a course. Squire Gowen was a bridge man, and it was mainly through his efforts that the Milltown bridge was built. The Fiscal Court will not make a mistake if it pushes both of these propositions."

Mr. W. O. Pelly, of Pellyton, states: We badly need a bridge at Neatsville, and if the Fiscal court will not require too much from our section I believe we can get up enough to help out of the trouble. I feel certain in saying that our section would give $800, and the right of way for a bridge, and I hope the court will take this up at its next meeting and give it the attention it deserves. This is one of the most important crossing in the county and ought to be bridged. I also favor good roads.

Mr. John W. Corneal, of Pellyton, was in town Saturday and to a News man stated: I am heartily in favor of good roads but shall not attempt to say how they should be made. One thing I know we need and need badly, and that is a bridge across Green river in the Neatsville section.

Mr. Samuel H. Newbold, of Louisville, who is interested in lands in this county, speaks out plainly in favor of bridging Green river at Neatsville. He states that he will give a liberal donation besides paying his tax. Mr. Newbold gave $25.00 to aid in building the bridge over Russell creek, on the Stanford road, although but little to him, if any. His land is in the Neatsville country and he is heartily in favor of the bridge and in making a pike road through that country.

Mr. J. A. Turner, one of our best citizens in the Montpellier section, was in town Monday, the first time in over a year. Mr. Turner stated: I live just over the line in Russell county but I own land in Adair and you may say that I am heartily in favor of using a rock crusher and making roads. I feel a great interest in the county and I want to see the roads piked and will cheerfully pay my tax for this purpose.

MISS ELIZABETH MORRISON.

On last Thursday, the 22nd, Miss Elizabeth Morrison, one of the oldest ladies in this county died at her home, in the Milltown country, death resulting from paralysis and old age. The deceased had reached the age of 95 years, 2 months and 8 days, and had enjoyed good health all of her life. She is survived by two brothers, Mr. James Morrison, who is 87 years of age, and Mr. T. J. Morrison, who is nearing his 81st birthday, but both are in a feeble state of health. She was a consistent member of the Presbyterian church, her membership being at the old Union church a few miles East of Columbia.

When but 9 years of age, her parents removed from Richmond, Va., stopping one year where Campbellsville is now located, and afterwards settling near Milltown, where they lived and died, leaving 6 children, all of whom are now dead except the two above mentioned.

The family is rather a remarkable one for longevity, all reaching old age. Her father was 93 years old at death, and her sisters who have died are as follows: Mrs. Sallie Sexton, age 67 years, Miss Ann Morrison, age 88, Miss Martha Morrison, 87, living to a good old age, industrious and honest that family is disappearing, but a good name, and a life filled with good deeds, is a heritage to their posterity. The deceased was an aunt of Messrs. J. W. Morrison of Columbia, J. C. Morrison, of Campbellsville, and W. R. Sexton, this town.

This good old lady was, in her declining days, well cared for by her nephew, Mr. Waller Morrison, to whom the above mentioned kin extend their thanks for their painstaking attention and devotion to their aunt.

WATCH for the ads of the Lyon Buggy Co., Campbellsville, Ky., in this paper. They are after your business and will have it if you give them half a chance.

MARRIED.

Mr. James Elzy Baily and Miss Elnoira Leach were married at Russell Springs last Sunday. The contracting parties live in Adair county, the bride having been a school teacher for several years. They have the best wishes of their many friends.

SEVENTY YEARS OLD.

Mr. James Richards, who lived in Russell county, just over the Adair line, died last Saturday. He was seventy years old and a good citizen, and will be greatly missed from the active walks of life. The interment was in the family burying ground.

HOUSE TO RENT.

I have a 5-room cottage well located and complete in every particular.
